

CGFCU Privacy Policy

To assure the continued privacy and confidentiality of your personal financial information, your credit union observes these practices and procedures:

Information we collect: we collect non-public personal information about you from some or all of the following sources:

- Applications and other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets and income.
- Your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others, such as your account balances, payment history, parties to transactions, and credit card usage.
- Consumer reporting agencies, such as your creditworthiness and credit history.

Information we disclose: We may disclose all the information we collect as described above to other financial institutions with which we have joint marketing agreements. We may disclose information about you under other circumstances as permitted by law.

Our Security Measures: We restrict access to non-public information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products and services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with Federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information. Credit union members and the public may receive additional copies of this notice of privacy practices by contacting the credit union at 518-828-5216.
